COLLEGE FESTIVAL

Shri Chinai College was established 1963. Since every year Shri Chinai College of Commerce & Economics has organized the annual cultural event titled “KALA VILAS”.

Student cultural activities are integral to fostering a diverse and inclusive campus environment. These activities encompass a wide range of events and initiatives that celebrate and promote cultural awareness. Examples include cultural festivals, art exhibitions, international food fairs, and traditional performances. Student cultural groups also play a vital role, organizing events that highlight different ethnicities, traditions, and perspectives. Participating in these activities helps students develop a global mind-set, appreciate diversity, and engage in cross-cultural interactions, contributing to a rich and vibrant college experience. Additionally, cultural activities contribute to building a sense of unity and mutual respect within the student community.
